

WHO WE ARE

Blackbullion is an independent Financial Education company working in collaboration with universities to empower students with the knowledge, confidence and skills needed to navigate their financial future.

Blackbullion programs avoid complicated theories and maths, rather providing interactive sessions to maximise learning and inspire behavioural change. We focus on the foundations of money management including taking personal responsibility, being a discerning consumer, budgeting, minimising debt and saving.

Blackbullion is founded on the twin platforms of experience in wealth management and informal education, and is uniquely placed to connect with young people in a creative and engaging manner.

THE PROGRAM

The taster program, which has been specifically designed for NSMW, is a short (75 minutes) sharp journey through personal money management and will include practical tips and methods in addition to the theory and jargon, so that participants can easily and immediately apply concepts to their life and maximise the benefits of money management in their lives.

Cost: £350 plus £4 per student (excl VAT) per session

Collateral received by each participant: Blackbullion bag including worksheet, budget pad, pen, chocolates and a piggy bank
